It seems like it's been exactly 20
years now since I've debuted as a

letters. Thank you!
I want to keep being

THE FLOW OF THE EVENTS THROUGH THE ASPECTS

Michiko proposed to Kurosawa on the night of her birthday, and was promptly rejected. Her parents pressure her into going to an arranged marriage meeting, but that just opens her eyes to her feelings for Kurosawa. Michiko goes to Cafe Himeawari to try to attract the totally uninterested-looking Kurosawa, and meets his grandmother, Kaoru. She is also the founder of Cafe Himeawari, and she comes to tell Kurosawa that she's selling it to someone else. It seems that Kurosawa's father's motives are involved in the background of that decision. Kurosawa shows his weak side about his beloved grandmother's verdict, which worries Michiko. Meanwhile, Kaoru has an attack of her chronic heart disease, and Shuuen, not wanting to worry her, decides to close the shop. If the shop closes, Michiko won't be able to see Kurosawa anymore! Michiko has a big shock. But there may be a new development to revive Cafe Himeawari... ?!
